

Cannon Stock '06

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS RANDI RICKARDS

Larry Noia and the Shadowcasters put on a top performance in the Battle of the Bands Saturday. The top prize, however, went to the Odessa Massacre.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS THOMAS TROWER

The Cannon Fire Department entered their truck into the car show Saturday at Cannon Stock '06. Among the children given rides was Anthony Garriga, son of Staff Sgt. David Garriga, 27th Logistics Readiness Squadron.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS RANDI RICKARDS

The late night attraction of Cannon Stock was the Cannon Idol competition held in The Landing. Staff Sgt. Stephen Jones, 27th Comptroller Squadron, hit the stage for his chance to win. Coming out in top positions were: 1st, Ashley Balter; 2nd, Airman 1st Class Valerie Mangiero; and 3rd, Nichole Stone.

PHOTO BY TECH SGT. SCOTT MACKAY

Richard Hailey put on a prize performance while cooking his 1st place award winning chili. Mr. Hailey's setup consisted of two propane grills and a full display setting to add a touch of elegance to his area.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS THOMAS TROWER

Steve Mullins brought his miniature pony drawn carriage out to Cannon Stock to entertain families like 27th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron Airman 1st Class Brian Stoner, and his daughters Abigail and Paige.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS THOMAS TROWER

Left: The chili cookoff was organized by (standing) Karl Smith, head chef at The Landing. Among the judges were (seated, left to right) Col. Jeff McDaniels, 27th Operations Group commander, Jane West, Col. Scott West, 27th Fighter Wing commander, and Randy Harris, Committee of 50.

When the numbers were tallied, the winners were evident. Coming in 1st was Richard Hailey Cannon Education Office; 2nd Melba Worthen, The Landing Staff; and 3rd Airman 1st Class Lakietha Boynton 27th Civil Engineer Squadron. George Romero was named as having the hottest chili.

Right: The winner of the car show was Staff Sgt. Shawn Miles, 27th Maintenance Operations Squadron, with his customized 1998 Mitsubishi Eclipse.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS RANDI RICKARDS